Hon. William Wagner (Ret.)

special guest speaker

William Wagner is the Founding President of Salt & Light Global and currently holds the Wagner Faith and Freedom Center Distinguished Chair at Spring Arbor University. After a career of teaching constitutional law, he holds the rank of Professor Emeritus and received the Beattie Award for Teaching Excellence. Professor Wagner's public service includes serving as a federal judge, legal counsel in the U.S. Senate, Senior Assistant United States Attorney in the Department of Justice, and as an American diplomat and Senior Advisor for Global Criminal Justice at the Department of State.

William has authored briefs in countless significant Supreme Court cases including representing Right to Life of Michigan in Dobbs v. Jackson, the case that overturned Roe v. Wade. Professor Wagner champions good governance and freedom of thought, conscience, and religion around the globe speaking truth on behalf of the persecuted and most vulnerable.
